In Memoriam

NICHOLAS GARZA '11

1988–2008

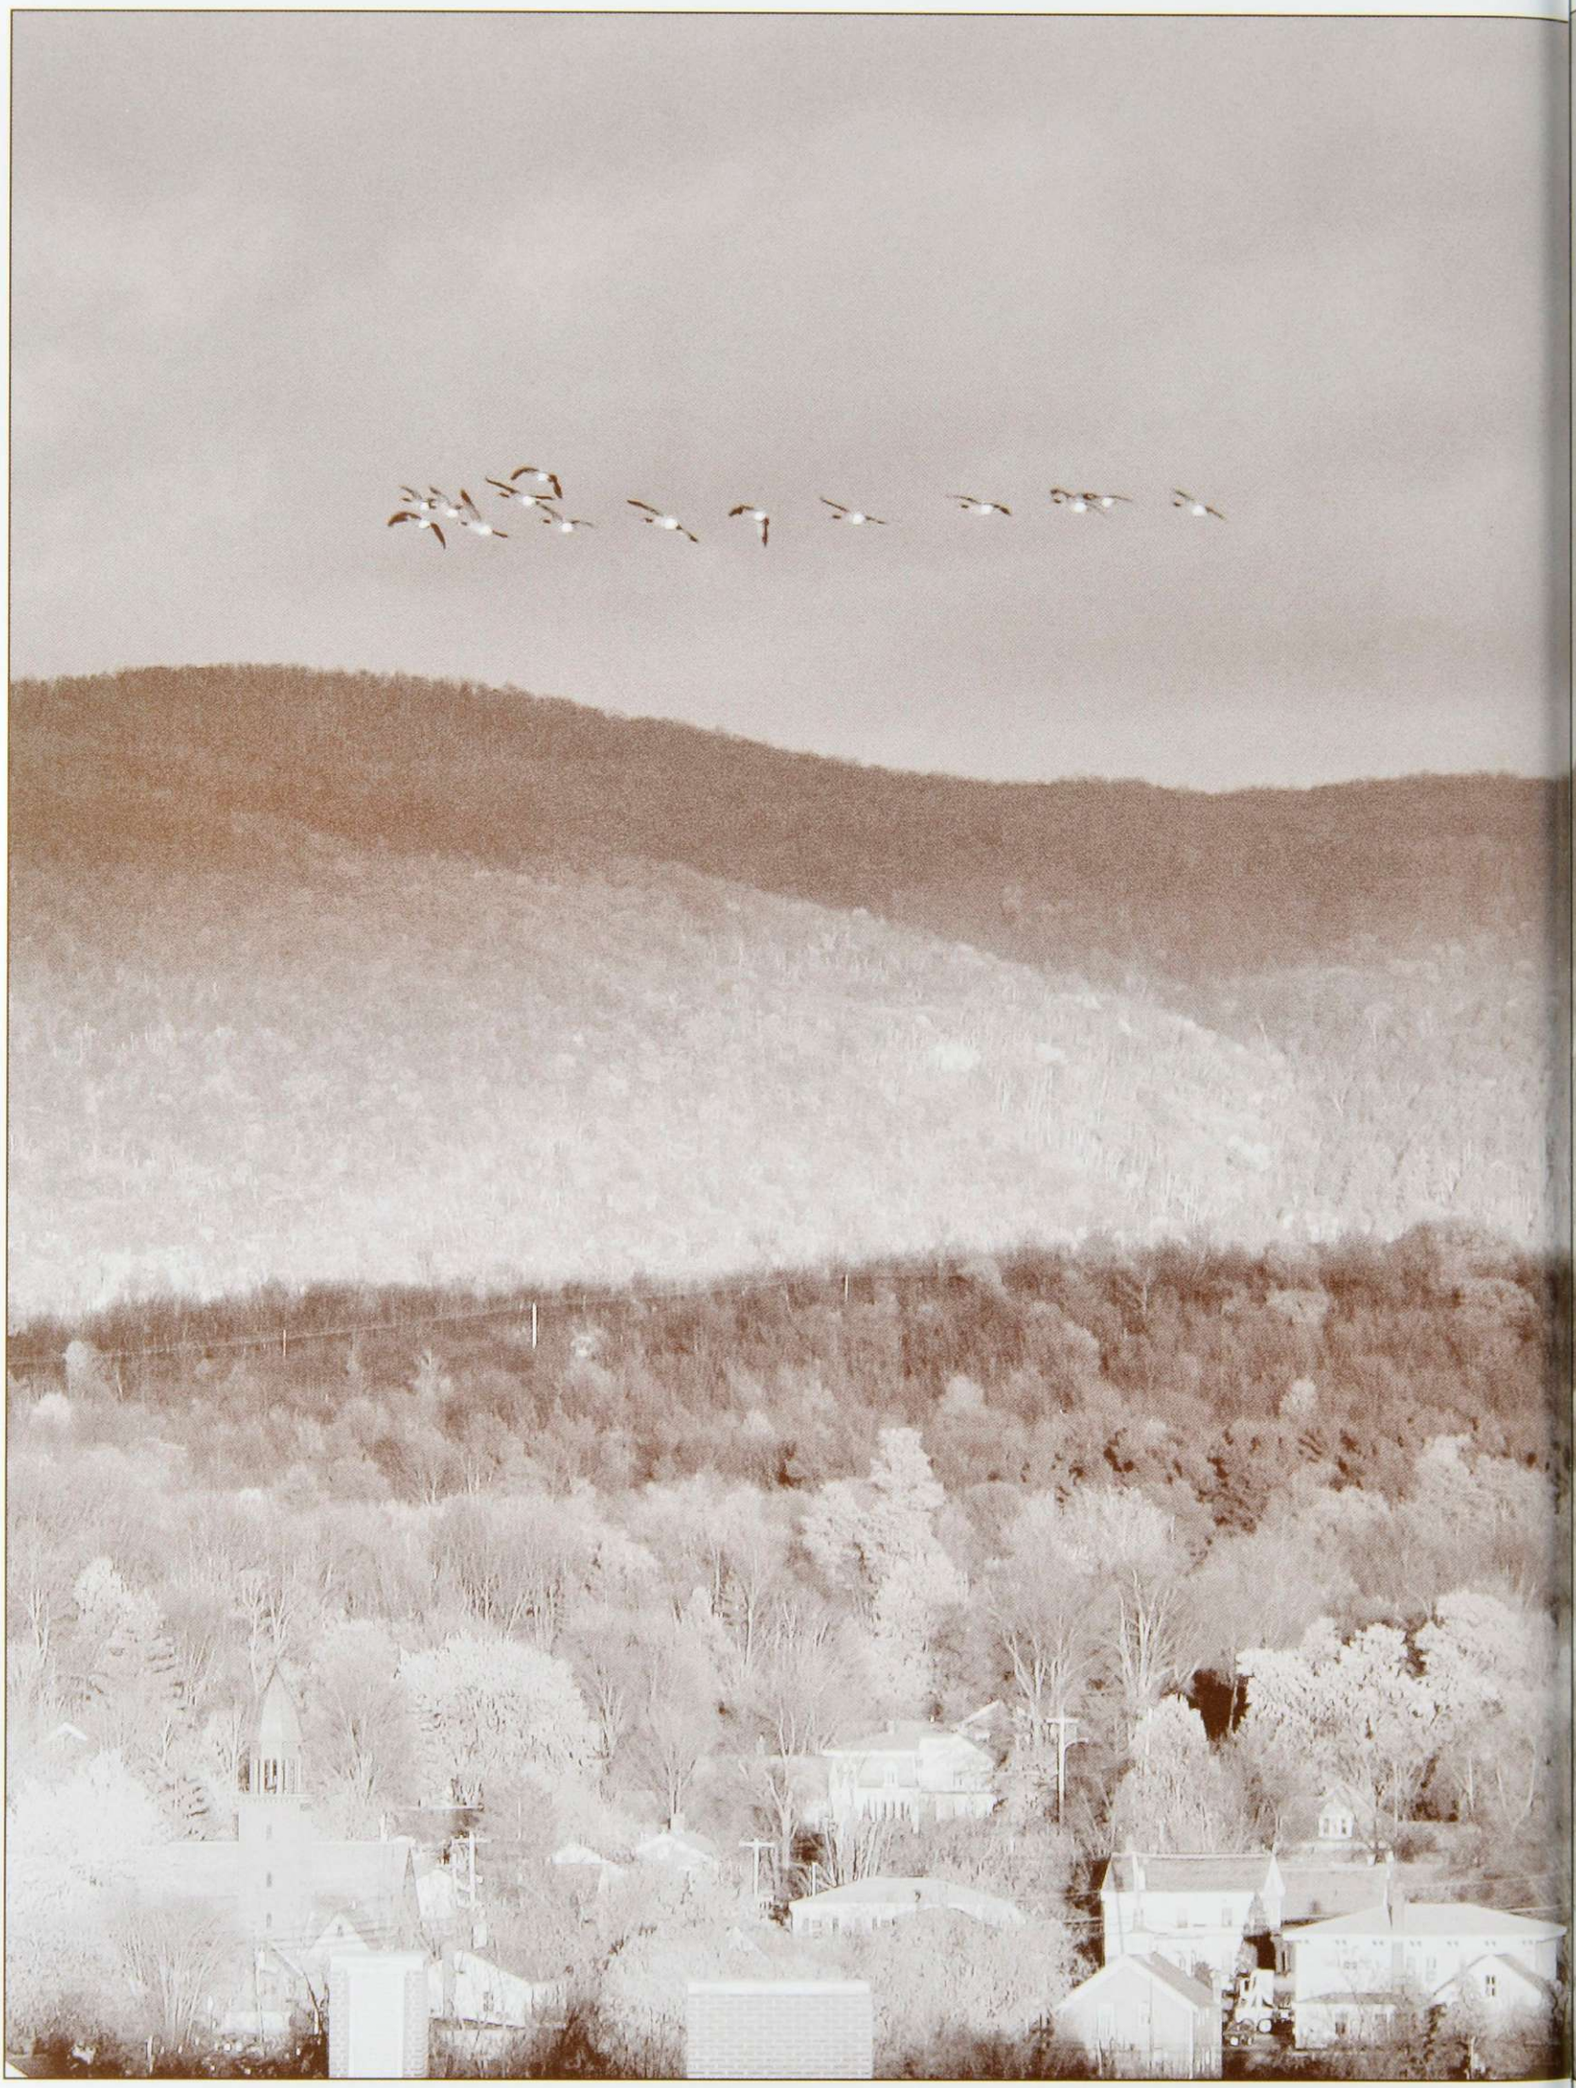
PAVLO LEVKIV '11

1988–2008

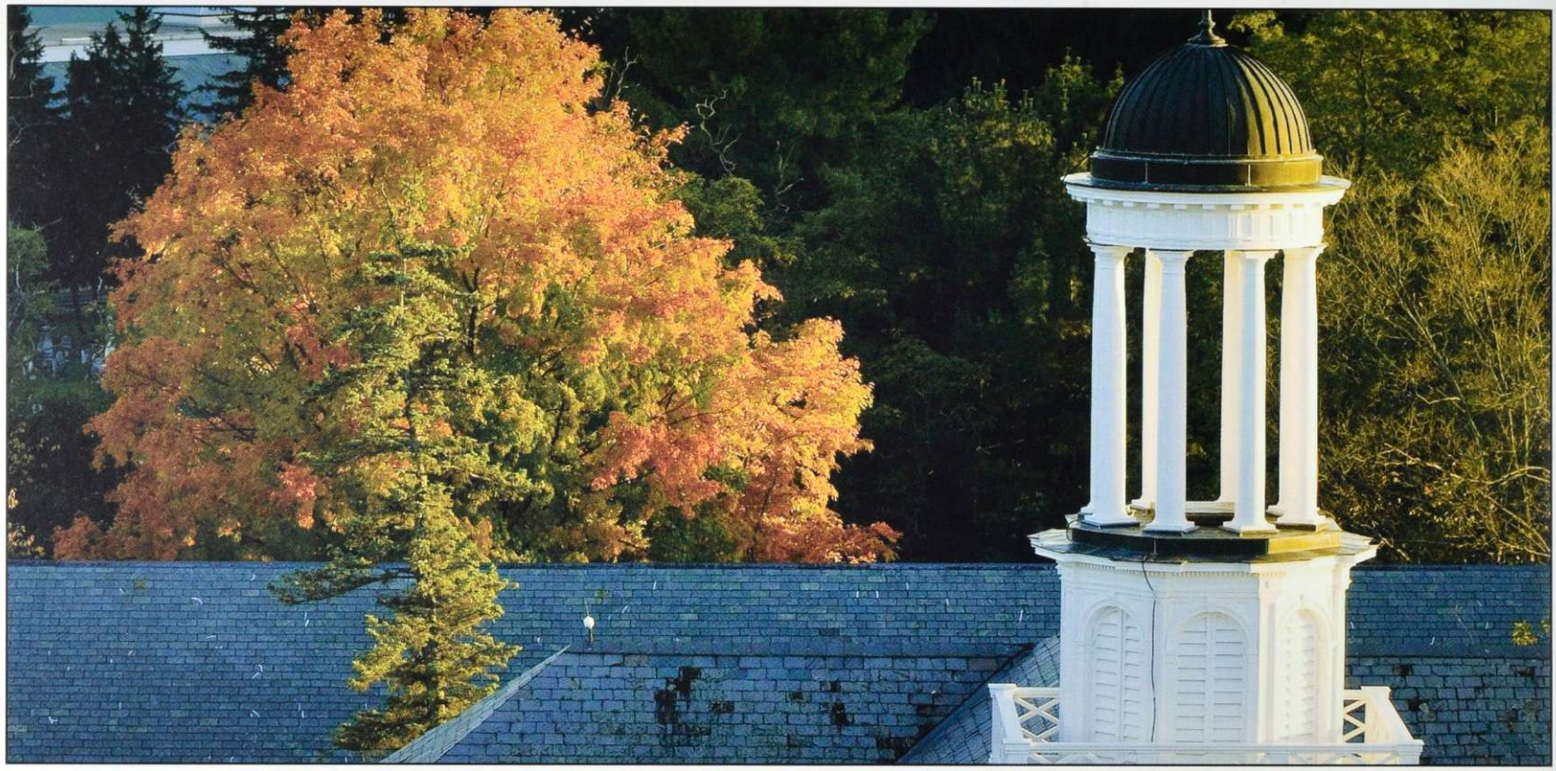
Ever watchful over the valley
'Neath the hill from which she reigns
With majestic mountains 'round her
Ringed by rolling fertile plains

Middlebury Alma Mater
In our hearts will ever be
To her glory and her honor
We will pledge our loyalty.

Middlebury Alma Mater '49



From sheltered valley to the hill we now must forge our way
Our eyes turn back for guidance to lead us to the day



When all our dreams are realized and hills we've yet to climb
Will open up their gates to us as towers of hope through time.

Thanks

We just wanted to thank all the people that helped complete the 2008 Middlebury Kaleidoscope. It took longer than we expected, but it really came together. A huge thanks to the CCAL Office, MCAB, The Middlebury Campus and the Communications Office for allowing us to use their photo collections and access many events. Special thanks to Rebecca Bierman, Matthew Boucher, Anna Chavis, Mellissa Cassis, Alison Corke, Ying Cui, Elena D'Antonio, Meredith Downing, Tugce Erten, Lexie Fisher, Kolbe Franklin, Kristin Fraser, Ashley Gammell, Alison Graddock, Claire Groby, Jessie Gurd, Maggie Higgins, Theodore Iobst, Ley Lacbawan, Avery Lachance, Robert Levine, Rachel Lincoln, Megan MacCrellish, Erin McCormick, Eli Menaker, John Monier, Nick Monier, Maegan North, Kelsey Nykiel-Bub, Derek Polsinello, Liza Reynolds, Morgane Richardson, Azaria Shaw, Liana Sidell, Himali Soin, Lauren Sullivan, Sean van Laer, Sean Walton, and Justin Wright for submitting so many great candids of the graduating class. We also thank Bridget Besaw, Bob Handelman, and all the Presidents/Leaders/Captains/Coaches of Middlebury clubs and athletic teams for supplying us with photos and all the other information we needed. Thank you to the parents who purchased the ads that helped finance this book; your contribution meant a lot to us. Huge thanks to Matt Clark and everyone at Jostens for always being patient with us and answering our questions. And finally, thank you to anyone else we forgot to mention above; this book was a true group effort.

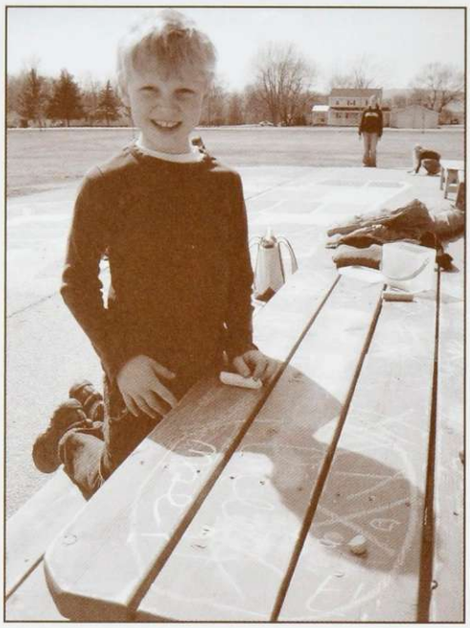
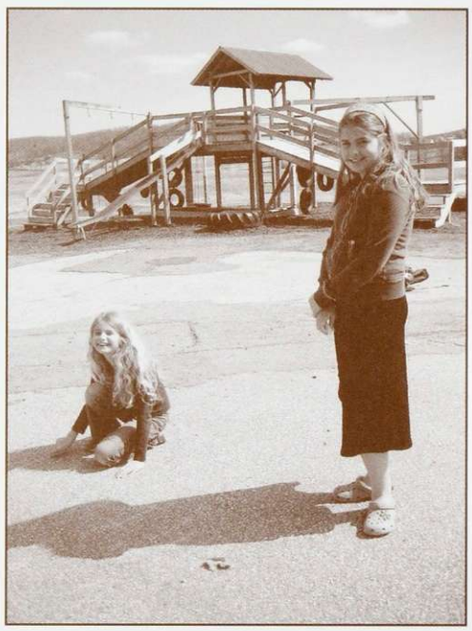
Student Organizations and Events

Page One Liteacy Program



The purpose of Page one is to promote a love of reading and enthusiasm for learning in students at local Addison County elementary schools. Through weekly readings, homework, and mentoring programs, and one-time special events, Page 1 strives to encourage literacy and to give children the opportunity to become strong readers and learners for the future. Page 1 works primarily with elementary-aged children on a weekly basis, but invites children of any age to attend special events throughout the year. One time events include the Halloween Party, the Winter Wonderland Party at Ilsley Library and the Reading Carnival held on campus in the spring. We hold weekly meetings every Wednesday night in Ross Basement.



Latter Day Saints Student Association

Le Cercle Francais

Le Cercle Francais' goal is to speak French in a variety of fun and informal settings, including weekly cafés and movie nights. The group has gone on two trips to Montreal, one for siteseeing and French dining, and the other to see the play "Rhinoceros" by Eugene Ionesco.

Members: Lindsay Sick, Kate Lupo, Loren Michelle Mejia, Shannon Engelman, Gita Eglite, Abigail Opoku-Agyemang, Dee Lopez, Jonathan Kay, Shenique Moxey, Heath Rassner, Daniel Pulido, Sabrina Bektesevic, Sophia Spring, Lucas Alvarez, Jeanne Vigneron, Nemanja Tepavcevic, Hilary McReynolds, Nathan Williams

Above: Le Cercle Francais has weekly cafés every Wednesday at 4:30pm at the French House and sends out email invitations to movie and food nights and other parties.

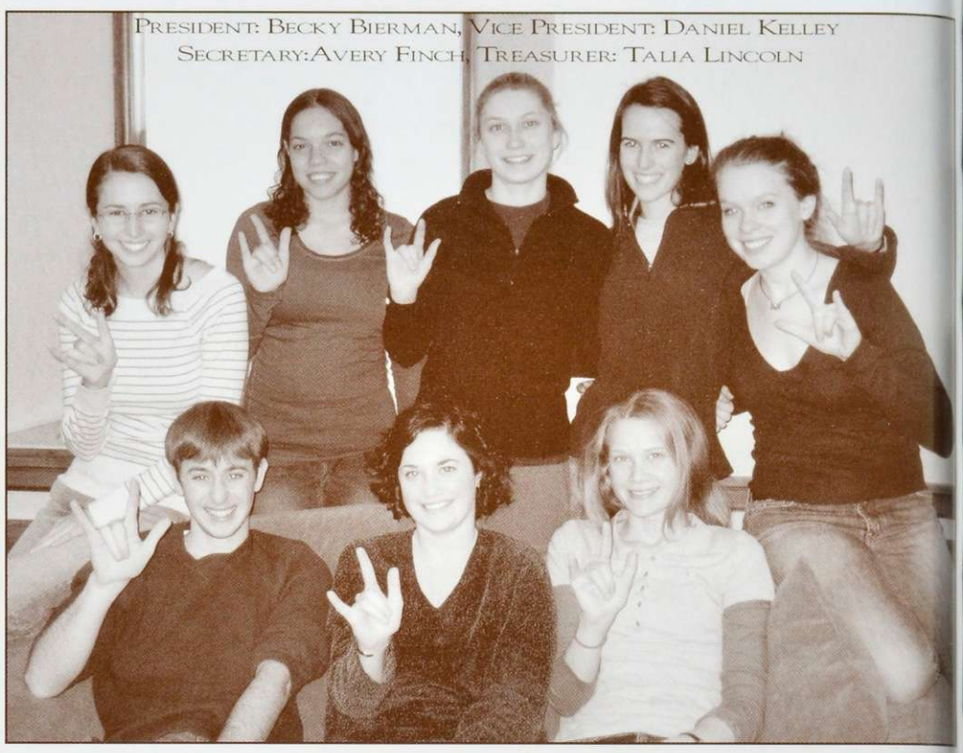
Treasurer: Kelly Patton
Members: Daniel Aibar, Caitlin Arnold, Ben Cotton, Kathleen Cyr, Lisa Eppich, Denise Hoffman, Leslie Lim, Mia Monnier, Zach Schuetz, Greg Selover, Laurel Talor, Kristen Voorhees, Yuki Yoshida

Aikido Club encourages the practice of Aikido and the compassion it teaches. We've developed a further understanding of Aikido and have worked to share it with the community. We have up to three classes a week as well as one weapons class a week.

Aikido Club welcomes all individuals to participate. Regardless of skill level, each person can become a member of the dojo family.

Aikido Club

President: Becky Bierman, Vice President: Daniel Kelley
Secretary: Avery Finch, Treasurer: Talia Lincoln



The Sign Language Club meets weekly to teach ASL (American Sign Language) to students. We also promote awareness of Deaf culture on campus. We host silent dinners, hold screenings of movies such as Children of a Lesser God and even perform with a capella groups.

Members (not all pictured): Emily Gullickson, John William Meyer, Mimi Micner, Will Bellaimey, George Atshuler, Deb Wakefield, Caroline Grego, Jeff Garofano, Sasah Hirsch, Julia Szabo, Reilly Steel, John Patrick Allen, Katie Williams, Eric Elderbrock

The Democrats stimulate the College community to take an active interest in governmental policy and promote awareness of Democratic Party policy by holding open forums for discussion. With the upcoming 2008 Presedential election, we discuss the Democratic presedential candidates and their stances on current events such as the war in Iraq and U.S. healthcare; some members even went to New Hampshire to volunteer on the campaign trail.

Club Equestrian

The Equestrian Club trains and competes in huntseat equitation. Our coach is Kate Selby of the Equestry in New Haven. This year we attended several successful shows as part of the Zone 1 Region 2 of the IHSA (Intercollegiate Horse Show Association) and organized our own show on October 13th at the Equestry. Even if they don't ride, the entire club attends shows to do the odd jobs necessary for a successful show. We also hold weekly riding lessons for riders of all skill levels.

Members: Chen Lou, Charlotte Hsu (Treasurer) Sarah Pickering, Katherine Burdine, Thea Morrison, Aleks Schoen, Kelsey Fredston-Hermann, Ruthie Reinken, Jackie Atwood-Dupont, Erin Ibler, Hannah Dzimitrowicz, Miriam Baker, Jen Spain, Sarah Attman, Lauren Goldstein, Victoria Vogel, Kimberly Ward, Ptarmigan Abbott

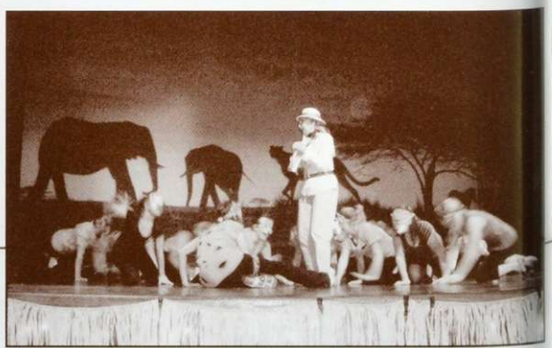
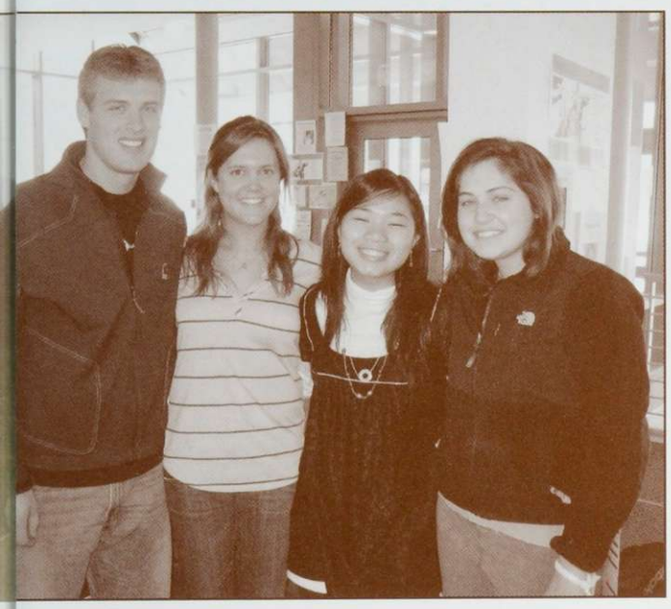
MIDDance

Middance organizes a performance each semester that incorporates different types of student-choreographed dance pieces. In the past, we have performed jazz, tap, hip-hop, belly dancing, Fijian, Chinese fan dancing, ballet, modern, break-dancing, and stepping. We encourage dancers of all levels, from beginner to advanced level, to participate in our club. We want to bring everyone who is interested in dance together, to have fun and meet new people. The club also strives to improve the greater Middlebury community through dance by donating to local charities each year and holding occasional workshops open to the community. We performed one show this past fall, Where the Wild Things Are, which succeeded in selling out two shows. We are in the progress of organizing and choreographing the second show, scheduled for this May.





Psychology Club provides students an intellectual and social atmosphere in which to discuss issues pertaining to psychology. We broaden the presence of psychology on the campus by sponsoring screenings, lectures, and discussions.

Psychology Club

Middlebury Asian Students Organization

MASO pays particular attention to the needs of the Asian American students on campus, but by no means limit itself to these students. These needs can be defined as, but not limited to, a need for an organization to provide fellowship and friendship, as well as bringing students of Asian descent closer to the community and vice versa, in an uncertain environment. The club also attempts to foster a greater understanding of Asian culture, customs, language, and ideas among its members, the general college community and beyond. We have successfully hosted two campus wide food events and a forum discussing what it means to being Asian in Middlebury. We are currently working on hosting a sushi workshop, participating in the Chinese Lunar New Year celebration, working with the Intercultural Student Leaders Council, and bringing in a dance troupe for a performance.

Student Government Association

The goal of the Student Government Association (SGA) is to represent the student voice on campus and to the administration. The SGA is composed of a Senate of elected representatives and a Cabinet, appointed by the SGA President. This has been a productive and busy year for the SGA. We have organized cheap and convenient transportation for students during breaks using biodiesel buses and shuttles and worked to centralize and expand transportation options in general. We have held several open forums with key administrators (including President Liebowitz), allowing students to speak their minds directly to the powers that be. We have continued to refine the financing guidlines to ensure that student groups are adequately and fairly funded. We have endeavored to bring open and balanced debate to campus by organizing speakers and other related events. Finally, SGA members have fielded countless student questions and suggestions, striving to make each fellow student's experience at the college a little bit better.

Active Minds at Middlebury

Active Minds at Middlebury strives to reduce stigma towards mental illness through outreach and education. In addition to bringing speakers to campus, we sponsor several stress-breaking events each semester. It is our hope that our continued presence on Middlebury's campus will illuminate the college community to the extremely relevant issues surrounding today's mental health problems and teach those around us that mental illness truly does affect us all.

President: Allison Corke, Vice-President: Valerie Weed
Members: Josh Chan, Lucy Faust, Keith Grogg, James Hexter, Gabrielle Friedman

Stuck in the Middle

Stuck in the Middle is an all male a cappella group. We've recorded our second awesome CD coming soon!

Members: Ryan Gillette, Josh Sackler, Rohan Maitra, Ian Sanders-Fleming, Chris Lam, Natty Smith, Casey Mahoney, Jack Terrett, Andrew Ostroff

Geology Club

The purpose of the Geology Club is to create a community within Middlebury College that focuses on aspects of geology and to bring the geology department together for meetings, presentations and movies. This year, we have put together our t-shirt sales and a fun movie night. The geology club meets a couple times a semester, for a couple hours.

Sweatervest Literary Magazine

Sweatervest publishes thought-provoking, sophisticated student writing and artwork, argyle-style.
Senior Editors 2007-2008 : Emily Temple '08 and Ashley Gamell '08
Art Editors 2007-2008: Tracy Young and Emily Stephens
Reading Board 2007 - 2008: Nicholas Middleton, Ward Wolff, Justine Katzenbach, Christopher Cara, Emily Feldman, Robert McKay, Kevin Redmon, Philippe Bronchtein

The Crampus

The Crampus is the only intentionally funny publication on campus. Our goal is to formulate, package and distribute humor to those less fortunate than us. So far we have put out one of the two yearly issues titled "The Midd Enquirer" spoofing the ridiculousness of tabloid newspapers (and life at Midd in general). We are working toward our goal of entertaining/offending 100% of the campus by 2014. We also are working on being the only carbon positive group at Midd. We meet once every Thursday in an undisclosed location due to fear of being found out and/or harassed. On Thursdays however, you can find us in the Crest Room conference center fro 8:30-9:30. Please join our staff. Even if you have graduated. We are desperate.

Debatable Magazine

Debatable Magazine is the College's opinions magazine, and we strive to provide an open forum n which students, faculty, and even alumni to express their opinions on any relevant social ssues in a public and sophisticated way. This fall, we put out our first printed issue, after releasing our first issue as an online-only publication in Spring 2007. In Spring 2008 we release ssue 3. We meet a few times a semester to sort out advertising, layout and direction. We have one editors' meeting near the end of the semester, to choose which submissions will make it into the print issue.

Staff:

German Club

The purpose of the German Club further interest in the German language and culture through activities and events that promote one or both. We are continuing traditions that have been successful in past years, such as our annual Oktoberfest party in the German House, as well as starting new ones, like our holiday cookie baking party and a Karneval party in the works. A big thanks to the German Department for their continued support!

Women's Water Polo

Our water polo team plays in the spring and competes against Yale, Williams, Wesleyan, and Dartmouth in the New England division of the Collegiate Water Polo Club. Our team includes both experienced and new players each year, and this year our young team will be a strong presence in the league after finishing second last season. The biggest goal we have is to win the New England division title and go to the Women's Club Nationals in Portland, OR. We practice five days a week in season and travel to teams in the region to play games and tournaments on the weekend. This year our team will be traveling to Ft. Lauderdale, FL over spring break for a training trip.

Participants 2007-2008:
Eva Alminana, Ann Benson, Pam Chatikavanij, Emma Johnson, Whitney Hendrickson, Jeannie LaPlante, Kristen LaPlante, Amelia Noble, Lois Parshley, Caitlin Pentifallo, Emily Picciotto, Susan Read, Leah Shackleton, Whitney Thomas, Ashleigh Weissman Joanna Wood

Habitat For Humanity

Habitat for Humanity works to develop communities with people in need by building and renovating houses so that there are decent houses in decent communities in which every person can love, live and grow. This year, we will have a Spring Break Trip to Ashville, North Carolina as well as a 5k Run in which proceeds will be donated to Habitat. When we're not fundraising, we build on the worksite every Saturday for seven hours.

Middlebury College Republicans

The purpose of the College Republicans is to bring about political diversity and diversity of thought on campus. A continual goal for the College Republicans is to work with groups on campus to offer a balanced political offering to our campus through debates, panels and speakers. This year we are working to bring in a Conservative activist to offer diversity of thought and opinion in order to bring about education of political opinions other than just those of liberal thinking people. Additionally, we are hoping to participate in several debates in panels with other campus groups this coming semester. We meet every Monday in the Crest Room. Additionally, the Vermont College Republicans is a newly federated chapter of the National College Republicans. Networking with fellow Republicans from other campuses in Vermont will be key to progressing and promoting conservative ideas.

Middlebury Open Queer Alliance

MOQA promotes acceptance and awareness of the GLBTQ community at Middlebury and issues concerning queer students. The group has had a very successful Coming Out Week, coordinated several events concerning sex or sexual orientation. Additionally, MOQA has been very active in educating the community, protesting the Don't Ask Don't Tell US military policy, battling homophobia on campus, and pursuing a "Queer Studies House" and GLBT Center for Middlebury College. This year the Executive Board of MOQA Advocated for an Academic Interest House and a hired GLBT Center Director position at the college. If these objectives are met, it would be making history for the college.

MIDDialogue

MIDDialogue initiates and encourages healthy dialogue and discussion about important issues on the Middlebury Campus. This year, we've held discussions on privilege, poverty and homelessness, sexual agression, and Anti-Americanism abroad among other things. Our next goal is to hold a discussion on how the college spends its money on social-interest housing.

Russian and Eastern European Society

The REES educates the college community about the cultures of Russia and Eastern Europe. This year, the REES offers weekly Russian teas (as pictured in bottom left), Russian film screenings, picnics and cultural dinners. We are also planning to launch a website to organize off-campus trips. The group has developed great popularity and will hopefully go strong for years to come.

On Tap

The purpose of On Tap is to foster interest in tap dancing and bring many different students together through tap. On Tap produces a spring show, but keeps the tapping alive in the fall by appearing in numerous shows including The ISO Cultural Show, Middance, an A Cappella Jamboree fundraiser for AIDS orphans in Botswana, Wonnacott Global Rhythms, and the Ross Commons Bourbon Street Party. The members get together for weekly rehearsals for every piece they perform.

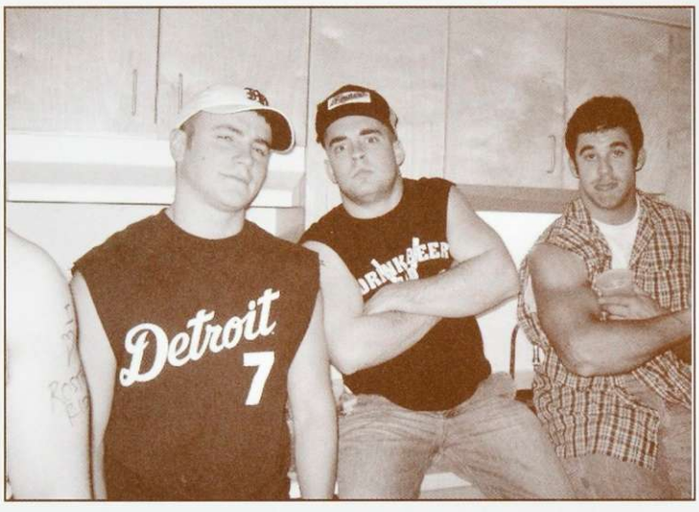
Delta House



It is our goal as members of the Delta House to be active in the college and surrounding community through acts of community service, campus wide social and academic events, and environmental awareness. We are committed to providing a diverse social life for current and future students of the college. We will strive to achieve excellence and preserve the integrity of the Social House system. - Delta Mission Statement

We have successfully revitalized the Delta House, hosting our Christmas party and a formal, collecting toys for Toys for Tots, assisting with the local flag football league, and inducting a pledge class of over fifty people. We are planning a number of community service events and social events for the remainder of the year including the return of Toga and Hawaiian Weekend.

Delta is back and excited about regaining its residential status next year. It has been an exciting year for the house and we're looking forward to breathing new life into the Social House system.

The goal of the Sailing Club is to offer students the opportunity to experience the joys of sailing, whether for the first time or for the hundredth time, and to give racers an opportunity to shine in the world of NESCAC Club racing. As a part of the New England Intercollegiate Sailing Association, we travel every weekend to regattas around the northeast. We practice weekly at our boathouse on Lake Champlain. This year we were ranked 23rd out of 38 teams in New England. We were the highest ranked un-coached team in the country. We also hosted the first annual parents and alumni regatta and bbq, and have recently launched a "Rock the Boat" fundraising campaign. We hope to purchase a new fleet of boats next fall.

International Students Organization

"Comprising of over 200 students from more than 70 countries, the ISO is the largest student-run organization at Middlebury and works closely with the International Students and Scholar Services (ISSS) to ensure a smooth transition for all international students and to provide a comfortable environment for the exchange and introduction of new cultures and traditions." (taken from school website) ISO achievements this year have been numerous; we have organized the ISO Cultural Show, co-sponsorship for cultural performances, the ISO Soccer World Cup, an ongoing discussion series, events focusing on cultures not previously showcased, and International Reading nights for children from the Middlebury Community at Ilsley Library.

Newman Club

The Newman Club fosters the Catholic faith through: A. The Eucharist revered as the Lord's Presence, B. Catechesis founded in Church Doctrine, C. Community marked by its inclusiveness, and D. Service enacted out of a generous Spirit. We meet every Sunday night for student-run Mass, as well as a few Saturdays a semester for Living Stones- a dinner and discussion, or for various service projects. We're currently working on organizing an annual retreat.

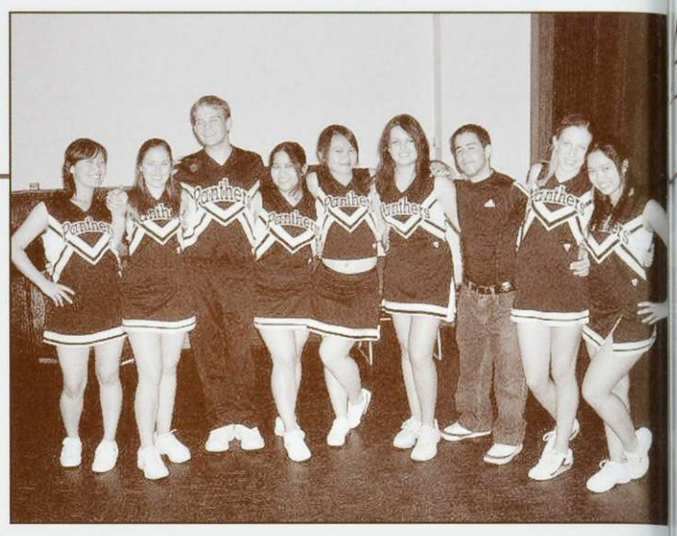
Midd Cheer



The purpose of Midd Cheer is to allow students with interest in gymnastics, cheer, dance, and/or stunts to learn about or to continue in the sport of cheerleading. The team also to competes against other schools at the collegiate level in competitive cheer and promotes school spirit at various Middlebury College sporting events. Midd Cheer has had a wonderful year in which Captain Ryan Tauriainen took over as both captain and coach due to the loss of last year's coach, Katie Cobelli '04. Midd Cheer consistently provides school spirit for our athletes, hosts the Midd Cheer Talent Show, and competes well at all collegiate competitions. Practices are held 3 times a week and constitute 7 hours of practice.

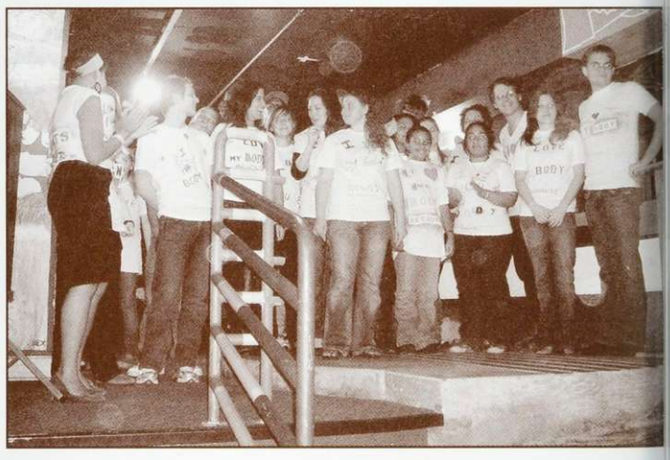
Feminist Action

Feminist Action at Middlebury promotes activities focusing on women and gender and strives to bring a greater understanding of gender-related issues to the community at large. FAM also provides a forum for the advancement and protection of women's rights, safety, and well-being, and in so doing, strives to create and inclusive and diverse feminist consciousness at the college.



Top Right and Right: FAM started off the year with a welcome event for new members where we made t-shirts that said "This is what a Feminist Looks Like." In addition to our weekly meetings, we contributed to the Task Force on the status of women and protested a conteversial college-sponsored party. Finally, we hosted a very successful 3rd annual "I Love My Body" Fashion Show!

FAM Board: Kolbe Franklin (President), Morgane Richardson (Secretary), Ryan Tauriainen and Carolyn Birsky (Events Coordinators)

Amnesty International

Amnesty International meets weekly to organize events and actions on campus in order to promote awareness of international human rights and their violations. Our biggest achievement this academic year so far was the Human Rights Symposium - a 10-event symposium that sought to transcend the traditional rift between the arts and academics to put a face on human rights.

The South Asian Students Organization

The primary purpose of the South Asian Students Organization is to bring South Asian culture (dance, music, art, film, food etc.) to the college community. It provides a forum to bring into focus and explore issues that relate to South Asia (South Asia consists of eight countries – Afghanistan, Bangladesh, Bhutan, India, Maldives, Nepal, Pakistan and Sri Lanka). This year, we organized a welcome event and a Diwali Dinner. As we are a cultural organization, we do not have regular meeting times. The board meets when we need to organize a cultural event.

The Middlebury College Musical Players

MCMP is the College's only independent theatre group, producing two entirely student-run musicals each year. It seeks to provide all students with the opportunity to become involved in musical theatre, regardless of their major, and to bring a wide variety of musical productions to College audiences. This year, MCMP put on a production Merrily We Roll Along in the fall (directed by Kevin Tierney, music directed by Katey Schwind, produced by Amanda Kleinman). Reefer Madness (directed by Martina Bonolis, music directed by Douglas McRae, produced by Kevin Tierney and Laura Budzyna) opened in the spring. In addition, MCMP also presented a cabaret, "Starting Out Singing," in early February, directed by Samantha Peaslee and Kristen Faiferlick.

Islamic Society

The Islamic Society teaches students about Islamic culture and practices and provides spiritual and emotional support to Muslim students on campus. The organization is committed to celebrate Islamic feasts and holidays. This year we had a gigantic dinner party on the day of Eid-ul-Fitr, which is considered one of the biggest celebrations in the Muslim World.

Approximately 90 people attended, including students from different cultures and faiths, who helped us in cooking and preparing for the party. It was a wonderful opportunity for students to learn about Eid-ul-Firt and it created a pleasant atmosphere where folks of different backgrounds came together under one roof, exchanged greetings, shared stories and enjoyed good food.

In addition, we have Juma prayers every Friday in the Islamic Room. It is open to everyone interested in Islamic practices. We often have one of the Muslim students leading the Khutba and prayer. In Khutba usually the Khateb picks up a theme such as Peace, compassion, solidarity or any other theme that may be relevant to Islamic teachings and elaborate on that. This way we are able to create dialogues between students and create a n environment where students are able to learn from each others' experiences and knowledge.

Il Circolo Italiano

The Italian Club aims at supporting student and Faculty interest in Italian culture on campus. While combining pleasure of the mind and of the body, small typical cultural events and animated discussions around fantastic food keepthe Italian spirit of Midd kids alive! We are planning a trip to the North End of Boston, and have had successful dinners, parties and coffee hours. 4. We meet for Coffee Hour every Thursday in the Italian House.

Xenia

Mission statement: We, the members of Xenia, aspire to enrich the Middlebury College community through the foundation of a unique social house. Xenia seeks to create an atmosphere in which students can socialize without the presence of substances. We recognize the need for increased substance-free activities which are both social and intellectual. In addition we wish to increase awareness and appreciation for the aspects of the broader community sometimes overlooked.
Xenia holds substance-free events throughout the year and provides a place to socialize without the presence of substances. We also hold weekly home-cooked Sunday night dinners.

life as now you live it and have lived it, you will e live once more and innumerable times more; and e will be nothing new in it, but every pain and every d every thought and sigh and everything utterly ll great in your life will have to return to you, all in se succession and sequence—even this spider and onlight between the trees, and even this moment yself. The eternal hourglass of existence is turned down again and again, and you with it, speck of dust!" -Friedrich Nietzsche

"...adventures , as I used to call them. I used to think that th were things the wonderful folk of the stories went out and looked for, because they wanted them, because they were ex ing and life was a bit dull... But that's not the way of it wit the tales that really mattered... Folk just seem to have just b landed in them, usually--their paths were laid that way, as y put it. But I expect they had lots of chances... of turning bac only they didn't. And if they had. we wouldn't know, becau they'd have been forgotten. We hear about those as just we on--not all to a good end mind you; at least not to what fol inside a story and not outside it call a good end. You know coming home, and finding things all right, though not quite same...But those aren't always the best tales to hear...! I won what sort of a tale we've fallen into?" —Samwise Gamge Ross

Remembering that I'll be dead soon is the most ortant tool I've ever encountered to help me make big choices in life. Because almost everything - all ernal expectations, all pride, all fear of embarrass-ent or failure - these things just fall away in the e of death, leaving only what is truly important. emembering that you are going to die is the best y I know to avoid the trap of thinking you have ething to lose. Your high school yearbook held the advice that if you "dare to dream, dare to hope, dare to believe, dare to reach and dare to soar - oh how far you'll go!" Well, look how far you've already gone with your dreams. And your're still just getting started. Next stop, South Africa! Continue to dream and to reach and you will go very far in life! We're proud of you.

Love ya,

Mom & Dad

Dear Kates,
You once wrote that "school is where you go to learn to not talk." What a terrible student you turned out to be!
But, what a beautiful language you learned to speak throughout the years—a language of intelligence, enthusiasm, joy, caring, dedication, determination, conviction, and good old fashioned "hustle"—communicated not just with words, but with action.
We're so proud of what you have done, and so confident in all you will accomplish going forward. You understand that life isn't a quest just to do well, but to do good as well—and to have fun doing it!
Just be you!

Love, Mommy, Daddy, Megs and Brian

The Rainbow Connection

Have you been half asleep and have you heard voices?
I've heard them calling my name.
Is this the sweet sound that calls the young sailors?
The voice might be on and the same.
I've heard it too many times to ignore it.
It's something that I'm supposed to be.
Someday we'll find it, the rainbow connection,
the lovers, the dreamers and me.

Written by Paul Williams and used by Kermit the Frog of the Muppets, Jim Henson Productions

Congratulations, Kevin!
Follow your rainbow, wherever it may take you!

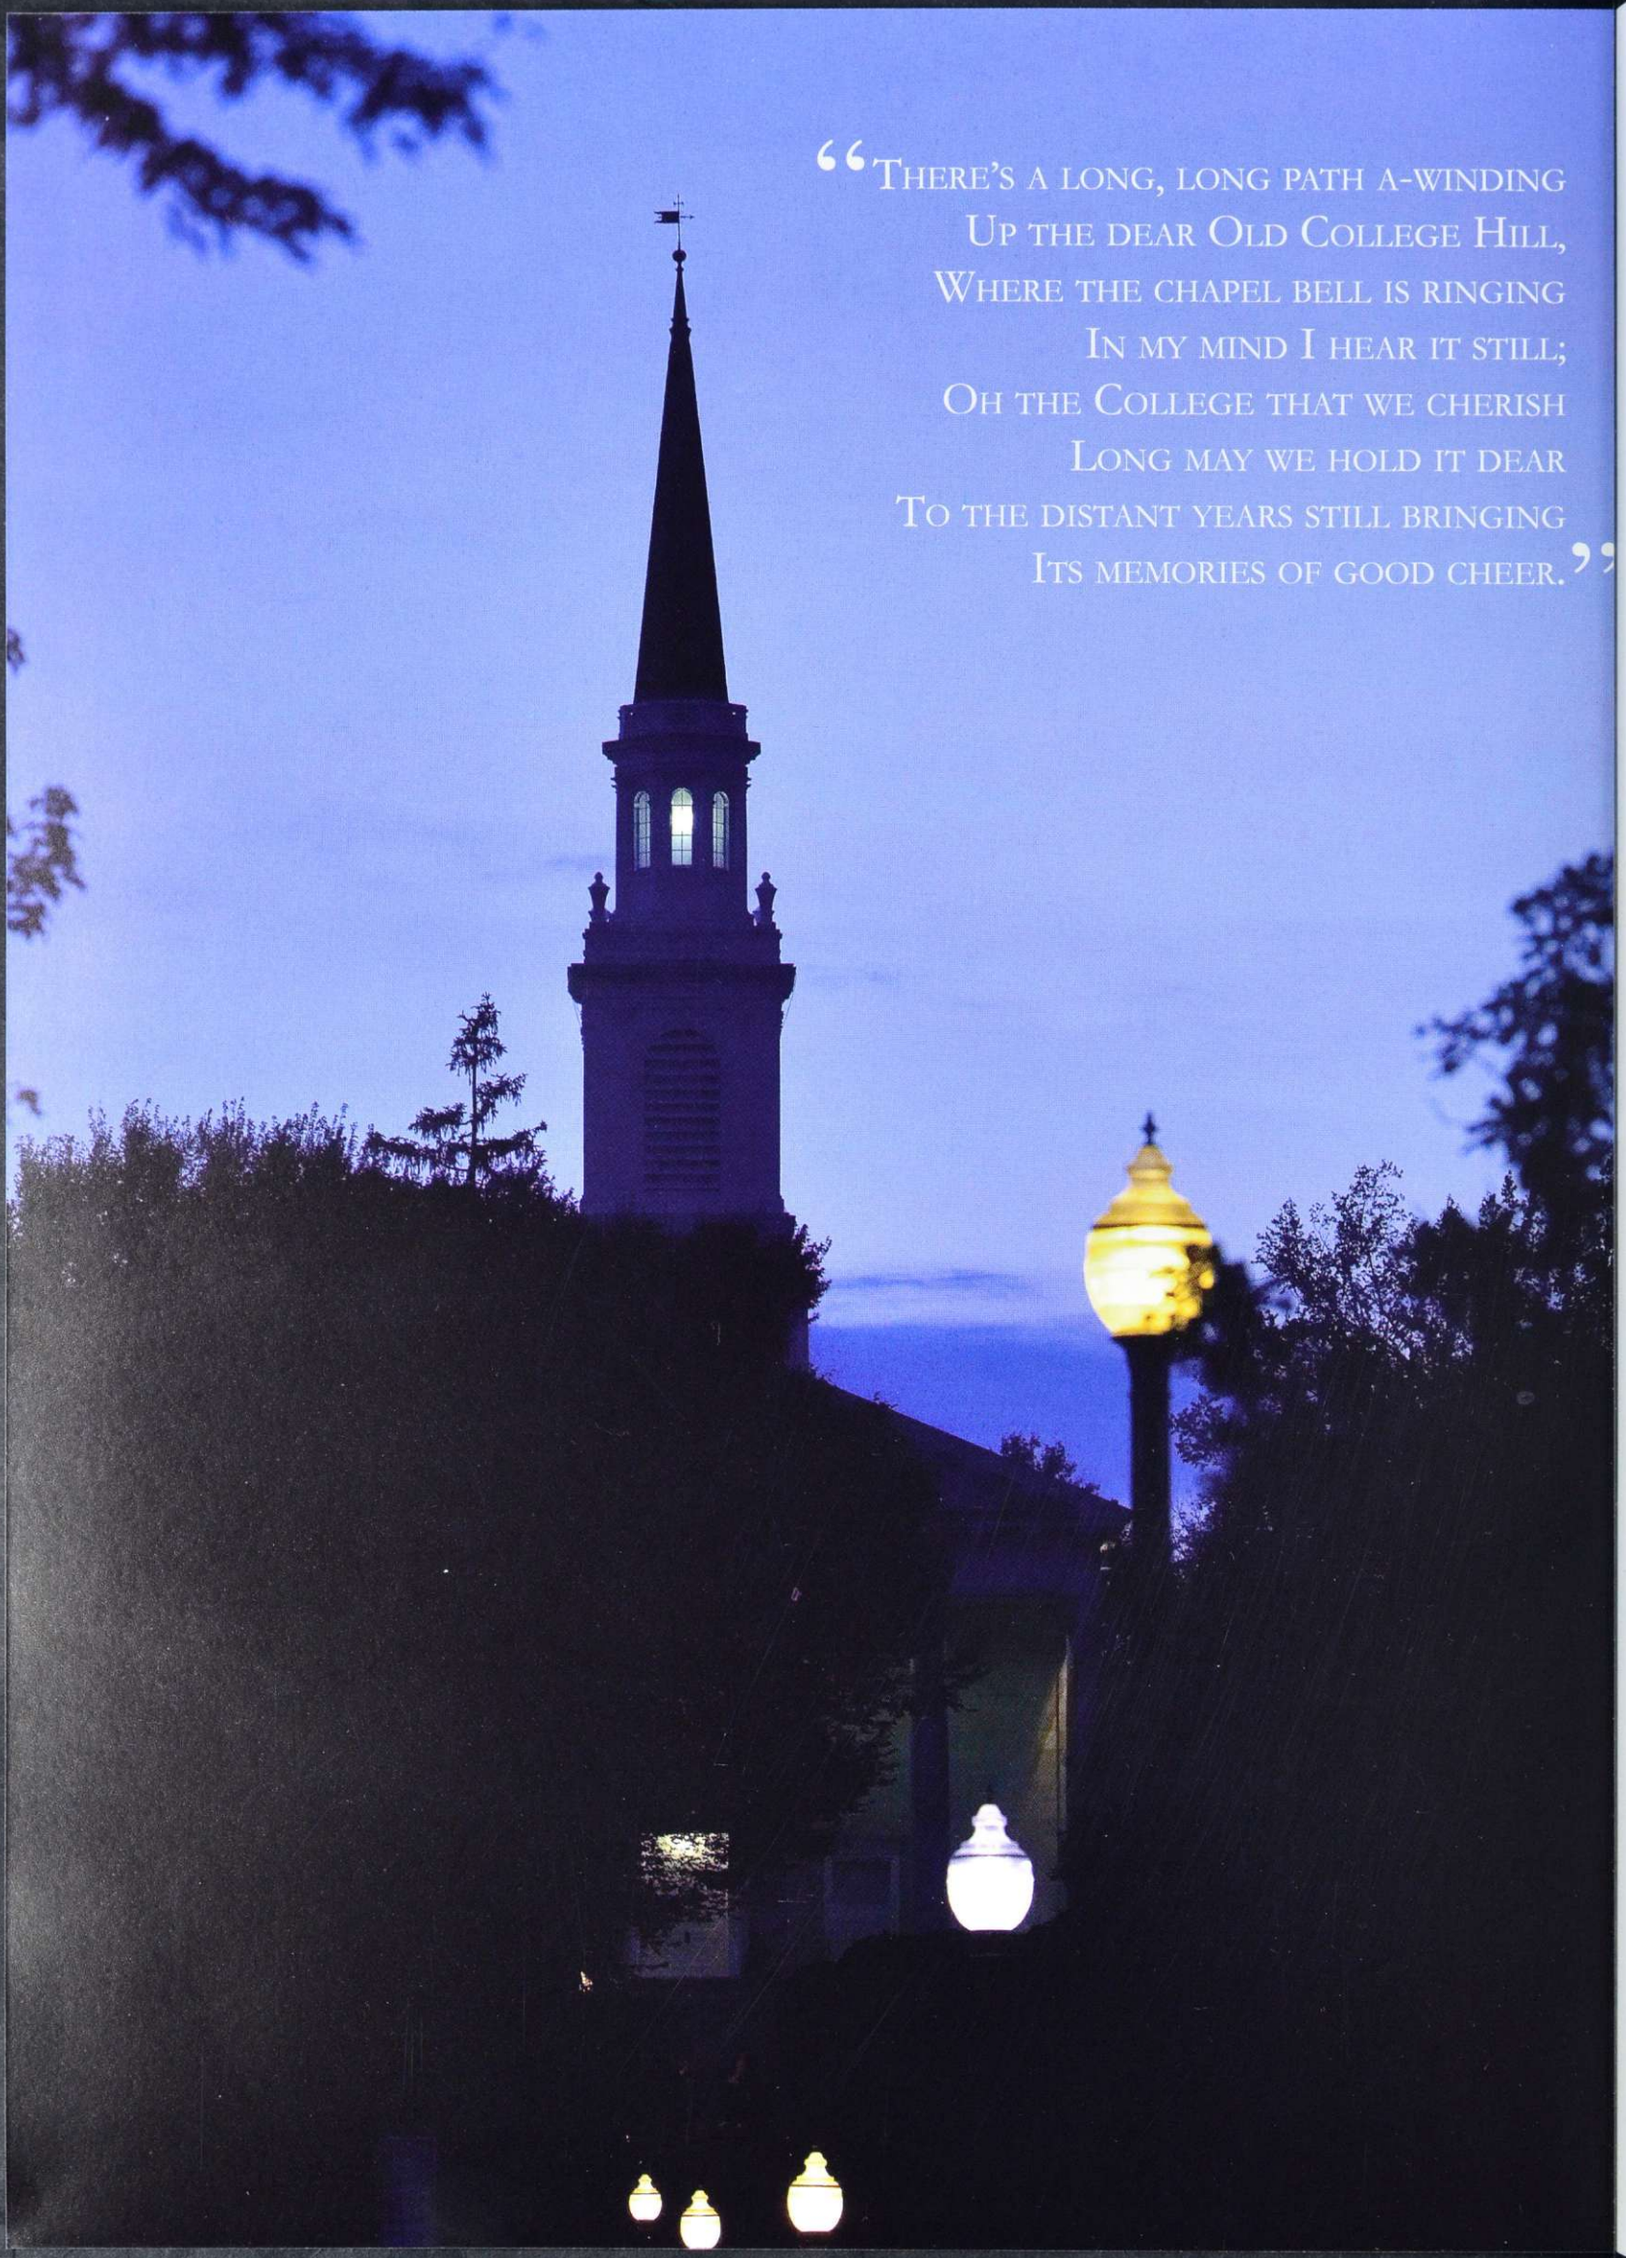
(from Ann Reed's Every Long Journey)



"There's a long, long path a-winding
Up the dear Old College Hill,
Where the chapel bell is ringing
In my mind I hear it still;
Oh the College that we cherish
Long may we hold it dear
To the distant years still bringing
Its memories of good cheer."
